From Thursday December 23. to Monday December 27 1697.

Kensington, December 24.

THE following Address from Leominster, was presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable my Lord Coningsby, and John Duttoncolt Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, High Steward, Recorder, Justices of the Peace, and Capital Burgesses of Your Majesties Antient and Loyal Borough of Leominster in the County of Hereford.

Most Dread Soveraign,

PErmit us, Great SIR, (after our Thanks to Almighty God) with all Joy heartily to Congratulate the most happy Success of Your Arms, whereby a tedious and expensive War (by Your Majesties Unparalell'd Care and Conduct) is changed into a Glorious and Advantageous Peace, one of the greatest of Earthly Blessings; and yet a far greater have we to Congratulate, which, is Your Majesties safe Return to us; and as all these Blessings are unspeakable, so shall they oblige us to all that Faithfulness, Love, and Duty, that can be performed by the most obedient Subjects to the best of Princes, and chiefly demonstrated by us in our Representatives in Parliament, whom we desire to continue their utmost Care and Endeavour for the Preservation, Maintenance, and Support of Your Majesties most Sacred Person and Government, as well in Peace as they have in War. And that Almighty God who hath made Your Majesty as well the great Restorer of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, as the Establisher of the Peace of Christendom, will preserve Your Majesties Sacred Person from all Dangers and Conspiracies, and make Your Life and Reign as long and happy as they are dear and desirable to us, shall be the constant Prayers of Your Majesties most Loyal and for ever Dutiful and Obedient Subjects and Servants, who in Testimony hereof have hereunto fixed our Common Seal this Sixteenth day of December, in the Ninth Year of Your Majesties most Gracious and Auspicious Reign.

All which Addresses His Majesty received very Graciously.

Cracow, Dec. 11. N. S. In a Council that was held here some days ago, the King of Poland being present, 'twas resolved, That a General Dyet be called, as soon as can be conveniently; That the Forces of this Kingdom be put into Winter Quarters, and the Care thereof left to the Crown General; That the Saxon Troops now in Prussia, shall be quartered in that Country during the Winter; That the late Kings Funeral shall be forthwith performed with the usual Solemnity, and the Crown Treasurer to furnish the Money that is necessary for the Expences of it; The Complaints of the City of Dantzick concerning several of their Ships being taken by the French, were likewise considered, and 'twas proposed, that by way of Reprisals, all the Effects of the French, that are found within this Kingdom, should be seiz'd, but they deferred taking a Resolution in this matter. The Gentlemen of the Province of Samogitia in the Great Dutchy of Lithuania, being lately met together to choose Deputies, to be sent to the King with the Assurances of their Fidelity, there arose such warm Disputes amongst them, that they had recourse to their Sabres, and divers were desperately wounded, but in conclusion the Deputies were chosen; who arrived here two days ago, with others from the rest of the Gentry of that Dutchy; and they have had Audience of the King, and been very well received. The Tartars have put a Convoy of Provisions into Caminiec, and are since retired to Valachia.

Warsaw, Dec. 16. Several of the Senators, who attended on the King at Cracow, are arrived here; and his Majesty is expected against the 20th of this month; Divers Gentlemen, who
